

News from the Anglican Centre · May 2016

Greetings folks,

Well, didn't expect my trip to Greymouth to end up with an emergency gall-bladder removal!

The week before heading down the Coast I admitted myself to A and E (Nelson Hospital) at 4.00am feeling very sick and very sore. They dosed me up with morphine and sent me home at 8.00am. I still didn't feel well but continued on to Greymouth on Friday to speak to the meeting of Clergy and Synod Reps. I felt dreadful during that meeting and had a bad night, so on Saturday morning I phoned Dr Greville Wood – Greymouth GP, staunch member of Holy Trinity, and distance learning student of BTC (graduated last year). He came straight round to have a look and admitted me to Greymouth Hospital! Now – here's where the story gets really good – there just 'happened' to be a laparoscopic specialist in Greymouth that weekend; a French Doctor from up north doing a locum in Greymouth. On Sunday morning I was wheeled into theatre in Greymouth (and assisted by Dr Wood) had the gall-bladder removed.

The whole situation had the hand of God upon it and I am feeling so deeply grateful – especially to Marge and Robin Kingston (for their pastoral care) and to Tim Mora (who had to pull a last minute sermon out of the air for Sunday morning). Hilary went along to Cobden by herself on Sunday (while I was in surgery) and absolutely loved the service: the sense of community, the anticipation for what God might be doing – the whole act of worship. On the way home (Hilary driving) we popped in to see Di Griffin at Reefton. The Church in Mawhera – from Buller to Greymouth and up the Grey Valley is in such good heart – led by committed, gifted people (both lay and ordained).

The whole experience came after a particularly fraught week with some real challenges to the leadership of the Church; health issues, faith issues and ministry issues and I was very aware that this was all happening in the lead-up to General Synod. Some people receiving this Ad Clerum may not be that familiar with the whole concept of 'spiritual warfare' but there were some rather dark and frightening moments during that week that left me feeling quite vulnerable. My chaplain (David Hollingsworth) shared similar experiences and this reinforced our desire to have a day of prayer for the Diocese which will, of course, be held tomorrow (Friday). Thank you for taking part in this day of prayer – for the mission, vision and leadership of the Diocese. I am celebrating the mid-day Eucharist at the Cathedral as part of this day of prayer.

Over the past couple of weeks I have also convened three meetings around the Diocese of clergy and synod reps to talk about the 'A Way Forward Report' and to consider whether this really was a way forward that we could embrace as a Diocese. The meetings were quite adamant that the Church's doctrine of marriage should not change, but there was a tentative openness to consider how we might more pastorally respond to people who are in same-gendered relationships. No decisions were made except to reconfirm our Diocesan policy.

I've yet to hear detailed feedback from the inaugural 'Fellowship of Confessing Anglicans' conferences in Christchurch and Auckland. Around 350 attended the one-day conference in Christchurch making it a major event in the life of the Church. I'm not sure how many attended the three day conference in Auckland but it was powerful in that it created a real sense of unity and common commitment between the more 'reform' evangelicals and those of the more 'charismatic' stable. I was supposed to have been at the Auckland event – but was still in hospital. However I will be attending the AFFIRM consultation next week – prior to General Synod.

Please pray for General Synod and for the Synod Reps from this Diocese: myself, Ian Pask, Andrew and Rebecca Burgess, Tim Mora and Russell Smith. (Annie Fraser will also be there as an observer)

This Saturday afternoon at 4.30pm I will be ordaining Sam Anderson as a Priest. This just simply gives the extra authority of the office to his leadership role at St Christopher's, Blenheim South. I'm thrilled to have Sam in the Diocese and this ordination is a simple confirmation of the calling that I felt upon Sam's life when I first met him.

Please note that there will also be an ordination service for Gordon Taylor (as a Deacon) at All Saints on the 27th May.

It continues to intrigue me the way ANZAC has captured the spiritual imagination of the community – fed, of course, by a sympathetic media. It is a privilege to still be invited to take a leadership role in these services within the local community. I shared the simple story of my daughter being caught up in a terrorist attack overseas a couple of years ago. Being careful not to include any details I mentioned this incident because there was a lot of talk about peace and about our soldiers fighting to bring about a peaceful world when it seems that the very opposite is the reality. It became very personal for us and led me into praying the benediction – the peace of God that passes all our human understanding.....

In the next couple of weeks Owen and Elizabeth Kimberley leave our Diocese and move to Christchurch to be closer to family. They are an amazing couple who have been integral to the life of this Diocese – both its ministry and its mission – over so many years. It won't be the same without their wise counsel in our midst. But we certainly wish them every blessing.

Great to be out at Brightwater last Sunday to bless the new vicarage. It's a testimony to them as a parish that they have finally completed this huge project. Great to hear also that the repairs to the Awatere vicarage, following earthquake damage are also now completed.

With every blessing
+Richard

SOCIAL SERVICES

Dear everyone, Thank you and well done to all who managed to get the ACCT accountability reports to us on time. It is not too difficult to complete this form or to diary a note to get it in by 31 March as we do send reminders out in late January giving time for Vestries to see and pass the report. It is disappointing that there are a few still outstanding at time of writing.

On a brighter note: SAVE the DATE 14/15 October 2016 What for? An event you won't want to miss! Watch this space....

CHILDREN & FAMILIES MINISTRY

The first of the 'Safe Here' Coordinator's Meetings/Trainings was held on 17 March. Thanks to those who attended either in person, on skype or by video conference. It was an interesting experience having people in a variety of places and was a learning curve for both the presenter and the participants!!

This training event marks the beginning of another stage in the process of ensuring all parishes are using the mandatory 'Safe Here' safety programme in all ministries in a parish. You will remember that the coordinator role involves two people per parish with one person, usually a lay member of the parish, who is responsible for administration and training plus the vicar or priest in charge. The role of the vicar/priest in charge involves the appointment of people to ministry roles and this should now be as per the process outlined in 'Safe Here'. You will find the process outlined in the Team Member and Team Leader Manuals which each parish should have multiple copies of.

With this in mind it is important that all vicars/priests in charge as well as lay coordinator's attend one of these meeting/training sessions in the future.

The next two sessions are scheduled for:

Wednesday May 4th - 9.30-11.30am, Anglican Centre Boardroom. Provision for joining the meeting via video conference or skype will be available. RSVP to Sue-

ENABLER FOR OLDER PERSONS MINISTRY

It has been a while since I have written anything for the Ad Clerum! I am pleased to say though that the ministry to and with older persons continues to grow in our diocese and for that we ought to be justifiably proud and thankful to God.

Thank you for completing the annual accountability forms for the Anglican Care Charitable Trust. In line with most other grant making trusts, the ACCT in its goal to be a good steward of the money it disburses, needs to know just how the grants are being spent. By the time you read this the ACCT will have met to discuss the returns and if there are any questions I will be in touch with you.

Also I will be contacting parishes which need to re-apply for their grant for next year and arranging a time to meet with their Vestry. I look forward to your cooperation in this. Don't forget that the closing date for 2017 applications is 31st July.

As Chair of the Nelson/Tasman Positive Ageing Forum I am aiming to have anyone who works in the community for the good of our oldest people to join us and to share with the group. I am pleased that some of our parishes are represented at the Forum and I would like to issue an invitation to any others who would like to join in. If you need further information please do contact me and I will be pleased to supply it.

Next month I will be attending the New Zealand Council for Christian Social Services conference entitled, Valuing People: Living Well. The conference is being held in Auckland on the 12th and 13th May. This conference is dedicated to the work with older persons and I would recommend it to all in our parishes involved in this ministry. The website address is: <http://nzccss.org.nz>.

Future Dates

Please note the following and ensure your OPMF workers are aware of them:

- |  |  |
|--|--|
| 2 nd October                    | The United Nations International Day of the Older Person.10am – Special Service at Nelson Cathedral.Why not arrange for a group to come from your parish for this special day? |
| 14 th -15 th October | A special conference for our Diocese as we celebrate and share our various social ministries including the ministry with older persons. Full details will be coming out soon.          |

In this special year as we celebrate the 90th birthday of Queen Elizabeth, Queen of New Zealand, let us give thanks for long lives lived well in God's service and for his glory.

Our Charge leaders will also be subsidised to go to Spring Camp as part of the program. ## BISHOP SUTTON LIBRARY

New Books in the Bishop Sutton Library

Dallas Willard – The allure of gentleness : defending the faith in the manner of Jesus. New York, N.Y. : HarperOne, c2015.

"Always be ready to give a logical defense to anyone who asks you to account for the hope that is in you, but do it courteously and respectfully". (1 Peter 3: 15-16)

Willard was a professor of philosophy and this posthumously published book contains material from his lectures. Willard's concern is to remove doubts that discourage an "enthusiastic and full participation" in discipleship. The "allure" is to be Christ-centred as we share our faith with intelligence and love.

Joe Rigney – The things of the earth : treasuring God by enjoying his gifts. Wheaton, Ill. : Crossway, c2015.

"How can we enjoy all that God richly provides without setting our affections on things of earth?" Rigney explores this tension and wrestles with some resolutions. The aim of his book is to help us rediscover joy, particularly our joy in a personal God whose good gifts should move us to "worship and generosity".
